

News & Events

Archives Month Celebrates Politics and Presidents

09/16/2008

Politics and Presidents

A month-long celebration of archives and special collections

Archives reveal the thoughts of presidents, the wishes of citizens, the inner workings of government.; They give insight to the political process and provide firsthand evidence of our democracy. Indiana University offers top-notch collections that support the university's mission. In combination with related materials, archives and special collections offer extraordinary opportunities to advance research and teaching.

Sex and Presidential Politics: Selections from the Kinsey Institute Collections

The Kinsey Institute for Research in Sex, Gender, and Reproduction - Morrison Hall, Third Floor

September 26, 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm

Building a Campaign

Office of University Archives and Records Management - Herman B Wells Library E460

October 1, 4:00 pm - 5:00 pm

A Change is Gonna Come: Black Music and Film from the Civil Rights and Black Power Eras

Neal-Marshall Black Culture Center - Bridgwaters Lounge

October 7, 5:00 pm - 6:30 pm

"The Man" (1972) starring James Earl Jones

Fine Arts 102

October 7, 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

We Want to Be President! Presidential Campaign Songs throughout History

Slocum Room, Lilly Library

October 9, 5:00 pm - 6:30 pm

Congress and the President: Keynote Address by Lee Hamilton

NOTE: REVISED DATE, LOCATION, AND TIME.

Fine Arts Auditorium

October 16, 7:30 pm - 8:30 pm

For more information and activities:

www.indiana.edu/~libevent/08